Weep Not For Me: In Memory Of A Beloved Cat

Synopsis

The death of a beloved companion animal can cause as much grief as the death of a human being, and it may be more difficult to bear if others fail to appreciate how acute the pain of loss can be. This poem provides the comfort that helps to bring acceptance of a petâ™s death. The book includes addresses of societies that offer grief counseling to those who have lost a companion animal.

My late wife left behind dozens of books on or about cats, this was one of them. While it is aimed at helping those who grieve the loss of a beloved animal companion, reading it was almost like hearing her voice whispering in my ear about how to best deal with her death. A loving gift for those that are suffering the loss of a pet. Recommended.

It is a beautiful, beautiful poem that she's written and published in this book. It's heartbreak and consoling at the same time. Having just lost one of my Babies, one of my little children, it was very moving. I highly, highly recommend it for anyone who has been so unfortunate as to have lost one of their "little children" too.

The book is very, very short, and has very few words in it. However, to those who have lost a cherished pet, it has the power to move one to tears. I lost my wonderful, special needs cat in 2005, yet I still think about her and mourn her loss. We struggled together to treat her renal failure, but she had a loving, safe home after I found her on the edge of a busy street, obviously very sick. It is a moving little book, and best given to one who has lost a pet. It brings back all of the memories, for good or for ill. My wife liked it so much she has purchased another copy to give to a friend from church who is probably going to lose her 20-year-old cat within the next few months.

I am knee deep in grief over the loss of my beloved cat. This wonderful little book helped a lot.

"Weep Not For Me" is a tiny book filled with a beautiful poem by Constance Jenkins eulogizing a beloved cat, and beautiful sugar lift etchings by Pat Schaverien. The book is intended to help people cope with the loss of a pet, and while it's written about a cat, it's a beautiful poem for any animal lover experiencing loss. Uniquely, it's written from the viewpoint of the cat, and provides reassurance for grieving pet owners. For those truly distraught there is a list of contacts for the United States and the United Kingdom for people having difficulty coping with their loss. The book is perfect for anyone who has lost a pet; I recently gave a copy to a friend who had lost a cat, and it was very well received. I recommend this book for those who've lost a special friend.

THIS WAS A EXCELLENT BOOK FOR YOURSELF OR AS A GIFT. A MUST FOR ANYONE WHO HAS LOST A BELOVED CAT.

This book was an excellent choice for my wife when she lost her cat of 16 years, which was tough for both of us though I only knew the little critter for 5 years. This book is really just a poem with one line on each page and a sketch of a different cat in playful poses. Its size is small so it can be carried on travel if sad thoughts resurface. It really is excellent to give to anyone close to you who you know has suffered such a loss.

This little book has a surprise bonus - the watercolor renditions of beloved cats. The sentiment, and especially the pictures, reminded me of some of my forever friends in ways I did not expect.
