Customer Reviews

I had often looked at Gooseberry Patch cookbooks, but had never purchased one before...even though I had always heard how good they were. I ended up finding "Very Merry Christmas" by chance at a second hand store, so I scooped it up. This is WELL WORTH the retail price! The first thing I made from it was the pecan chocolate pie that is shown on the cover. You do not need to add the optional ice cream/chocolate syrup as a topper-it is glorious on its own. It was a very easy pie recipe, and everyone raved over it so much-I made it for the next two family gatherings. The second thing I made was the Stroganoff Skillet-it was easy, fast, and similar to a Hamburger Helper style of dinner (sauce, pasta, meat) but without all of the salty/packaged taste. It was SOOOOO much better! What I like about this cookbook: 1) The recipes are in categories: breakfast, sweets, holiday gift mixes, slow cooker/make the night before type of meals, fancier dishes for the actual holiday meal, and easy dishes that are good for whenever company pops in, etc. 2) The recipes are for REAL people. No fancy ingredients that are hard to find. These are classic, homestyle recipes that your grandmother might make...or you might find at a church potluck. Since everything from this cookbook is turning out to be easy to prepare, and YUMMY...I just purchased another Gooseberry Patch cookbook. They are as good as everyone says they are!

this is another great book from the gooseberry cookbook line. i get these for the wife and she immediatly reads through them. she writes down which recipe and/or craft she wants to do. she just loves gooseberry

Not one of my favorites. I found the book with recipes and no names as to provided them. Bought the book because I knew someone who had been published. Never did find her recipes. But on the upside, I did see some good recipes to try.

Fabulous deserts! You can't go wrong with a Gooseberry Book! This book is both fun and has wonderful recipes that will have your family raving over your deserts!

I love Gooseberry Patch recipe books. This one was chock full of great recipes. I'll be using it frequently.

Just what I needed. Super price and fast shipping.

came in good order
