Although an editor's note explains that Flower Fairies of the Winter was compiled using illustrations from the seven flower fairies books published when Cicely Mary Barker was alive, I think it's worth owning. We get to have winter flowers and trees in one book. The same note states that there are more winter fairies in the 1990 edition than there were in the original 1985 edition. These are the fairies that appear in this book, in alphabetical order: Blackthorn Fairy, Box Tree Fairy, Burdock Fairy, Christmas Tree Fairy, Cotton-Grass Fairy (appears with the Rush-Grass Fairy), Dead-Nettle Fairy, Groundsel Fairy, Hazel-Catkin Fairy, Holly Fairy, Lords-and-Ladies Fairy, Old-Man's-Beard Fairy, Pine Tree Fairy, Plane Tree Fairy, Rush-Grass Fairy (appears with the Cotton-Grass

Cicely Mary Barker portrays accurate floral depictions with vibrant imagination. The fairies are endearing and realistic. Her exquisite illustrations and quaint, lovely poems are a joy for readers of all ages. Especially delightful in this edition is the Hollyberry Fairy.

This is a beautiful book. This is the third one I have bought. As the granddaughters have gotten old enough to not tear up a pop up book I buy it for them. I have have bought others from this author also. I really need to buy one for myself.

My preschooler loves fairies, and we have been collecting the pop-up books based on Cicely Mary Barker's illustrations. The "Flower Fairies" series of books by Cicely Mary Barker are simply enchanting - in "Flower Fairies of the Winter", the delights of the season as evidenced in nature are brought vividly alive through the descriptive poems and also the gorgeous illustrations of the various fairies. These little books are perfect for little hands, and for reading aloud. It's also a great way to introduce young children to poetry.

I had these books as a child. They are long lost. I found the collection at for an excellent price. They arrived in superb condition and are as lovely as I remember them. The delivery was especially speedy.

Was read a book like this by Cicely Mary Barker when I was about 2-3 years old. I still remember the vivid pictures. I purchased it for my grandson and hope he is enjoying it as much as I did and still do.

This is a beautiful book. It is so well made and the illustrations are gorgeous. I was so impressed when I flipped through it. It went to my 7 year old Granddaughter for Christmas and was told that she loves it so much!!! would definitely recommend this book.....I wanted to keep it for myself!

I loved the book but I made the mistake of buying this and all the rest of the seasons, trees and flower fairies books as well as the Complete Book of the Flower Faires". I then realized that all the pictures in the small book were the same as the big one. So I wasted $ with shipping both ways. Oh well live and learn. Beautiful pictures though.
